Attachment A – Council’s Committees

Committee Constitution

1. INTRODUCTION

Councils can form Committees and determine their functions, powers, membership and voting rights. Membership of a Council Committee is not restricted to Councillors.

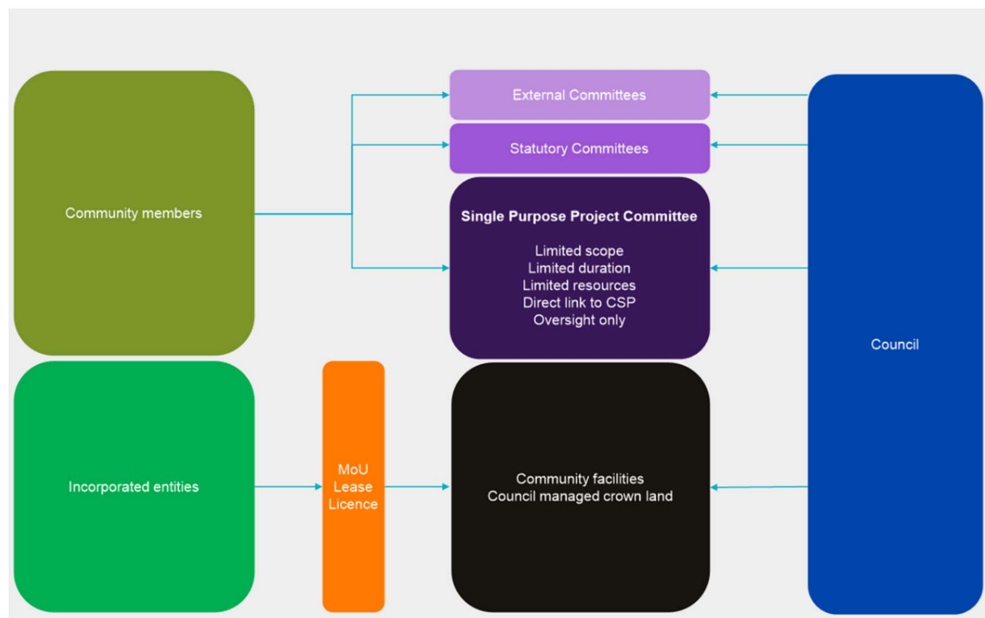

A Council Committee can be either:

- A Committee with decision-making powers as delegated by the Council. A Committee may exercise a Council function and a Council may delegate to the Committee any of its functions other than those outlined in s377 Local Government Act 1993. However, a Committee can exercise a Council’s regulatory functions under Chapter 7 of the Act only if all its members are either Councillors or Council employees, or
- A Committee which only has the capacity to ‘advise’ or ‘refer’ matters to Council for a decision. These Committees are common and only have the delegated authority to make recommendations but not to make decisions. Such Committees often consist of experts, professional persons, government employees, community representatives and Council staff. The recommendations of this sort of Committee can assist a Council in making informed decisions on complex matters. At Yass Valley Council, these Committees are referred to as ‘Advisory’ Committees.

All Yass Valley Council Committees, are advisory in nature making recommendations to Council. No Committee have delegated decision making responsibilities other than procedural decisions of the Committee (e.g. adopting minutes).

Council has adopted the following framework for its Committees

Simplified committee and facility management framework

Under this framework the Committees include:

1. Committees of Council
 - Internally focused
2. Advisory Committees
 - Provide advice to Council
 - Undertake projects as directed by Council or as endorsed by Council
 - Have an external focus
3. Focus Groups
 - Forums (generally annually) to provide feedback to Council and staff on priorities within their terms of reference
4. Project Working Parties/Steering Committees
 - Established to oversee a Council project
 - Operates only for the duration of the project
 - Provides guidance to the project at key milestones in accordance with the project brief to staff and/or consultants
5. External/Statutory Committees
 - External to Council
 - Established under separate legislation
 - Council provides a representative (and in some instances may be required to provide administrative support to the Committee)

The Office of Local Government have advised that these Advisory Committees should be provided with Guidelines on how to conduct their meetings and related issues. This Guide has been written to provide this guidance to Council's Committee members.

Council values the contributions of individuals and community representatives who become members of Advisory Committees. The primary purpose of these Committees is to advise Council on the needs or issues of a particular community and to inform Council's decision making relating to this community. Typically, the Committee will provide advice and recommendation to Council that relate to the particular community or issue that the Committee is concerned with.

This document provides a guideline on the responsibilities of Committee members in Advisory Committees at Yass Valley. The appointed Committee members are required to observe and adhere to these Guidelines.

A list of Council's Advisory Committees, Focus Groups and Project Working Parties/Steering Committees are included in Attachment A. External/Statutory Committee are not covered by these Guidelines.

Members of Committees who require clarification on any matter included in these Guidelines should contact Council's Senior Advisor Governance on 6226 1477.

2. PURPOSE, OBJECTIVES AND SCOPE OF COMMITTEES

2.1 Why does Council have Advisory Committees?

Advisory Committees provide a mechanism by which interested residents and experts can play an active role in the formulation of Council policy, direction and practice. Advisory Committees are an important link in Council's Communication Engagement Strategy with the community and are supported via other community consultative methods.

Advisory Committees can be established for the entire term of Council. The term of the Committee ends at the Council election.

Separate to Advisory Committees Council may establish a Project Working Party, Focus Group or Steering Committee for the duration of a project (e.g. Yass Valley Settlement Strategy). The Working Party or Steering Committee is disbanded at the completion of the project. These Working Parties or Steering Committees will have their own terms of reference which is generally aligned with the project brief. They will meet with the project consultants at key stages and provide general guidance. The Working Party or Steering Committee will not supervise the consultants. The input of the group will assist the consultant and Council staff in presenting the final outcomes for the project to Council for determination.

2.2 Objectives

Advisory Committees are established by Council to:

- Harness the views and expertise of the wider community
- Assist Council in its understanding of, and approach to, specific or localised issues, initiatives or community assets
- Provide a structured approach to the ongoing involvement of community members in Council affairs and the democratic process

2.3 Scope and Limitation of Powers

The scope of each Advisory Committee is outlined in its Terms of Reference. As Advisory Committees are established by Council – they do not have the authority to instruct staff or to make decisions on Council’s behalf. They also have no financial delegation.

The Advisory Committees will observe any rules and regulations made by the Council including all adopted Council policies.

2.4 Delegation of Functions and Decision Making

Under section 355 of Local Government Act 1993, Council is able to delegate some of its functions to a Committee of Council. However, all of the Advisory Committees as outlined in this guideline have not been granted any delegated authority and therefore, they serve to provide recommendations and advice to Council. In other words, Advisory Committees do not have the power to make a final determination on any matter referred to them.

2.5 How are Advisory Committees established?

Advisory Committees are established by a Council resolution in accordance with clause 260 Local Government (General) Regulation 2005.

The Committees and delegates are established by Council following each Local Government Election and remain in place until the next election.

Prior to establishing an Advisory Committee, Council will set out the following criteria and draft a Terms of Reference for the Committee which will include:

- The expertise or relevant background which community members should possess
- The size (minimum and maximum) of the Committee
- Quorum
- Frequency of meetings (minimum and regularity)
- Any specific interest groups that are to be represented on the Committee (e.g. government departments, community organisations, user groups etc)
- The term and tenure of members (if misaligned to the election term)

2.6 Terms of Reference

The Advisory Committee will be responsible for providing advice to Council in accordance with the Committee's Terms of Reference. Details of the Terms of Reference of each Committee are presented in Attachment B of this Guide.

2.7 Code of Conduct

Council has adopted a Code of Conduct that is applicable to all Council officials – that is Councillors, administrators, staff, volunteers, members of Council Committees and delegates of the Council. This Code sets the minimum requirements of conduct for Council officials in carrying out their functions.

Breaches of the Code by Advisory Committee members may result in:

- Censure
- Dismissal from Committee membership

As Council Committees are operating in conjunction with Council, it is important for Committee members to be aware of and comply with the contents of the Code. Your obligations as an Advisory Committee member are outlined in Part 3 of the Code of Conduct. Training on the Code will be provided as part of the induction process for all Advisory Committee members.

It is the responsibility of the Chair of the meeting to inform and take necessary action with respect to the members in relation to this Code.

2.8 Council Obligations

In constituting an Advisory Committee, Council agrees to:

- Give due and proper consideration to all recommendations and suggestions put forward.
- Give members feedback on how their recommendations have been used.
- Encourage member participation and meeting attendance.
- Respond within a reasonable timeframe to requests for relevant information.
- Provide administrative resources to assist in the smooth operation of the Committee.
- Accurately record and represent the views of the Committee.

2.9 Member Obligations

The obligations of Committee members are to:

- Attend meetings and participate in discussions.
- Adequately review any agenda attachments or documents as required prior to meetings.
- Report their views constructively and, where known, those of the wider Yass Valley community.
- Give feedback from meetings to the wider community where possible.
- Allow other Committee members to present their views and opinions.
- Suggest future agenda items.
- Make suggestions regarding improvements.
- Work within the timeframe of the Terms of Reference.
- Clearly declare any conflict of interest regarding any issue under discussion.

- Maintain confidentiality where appropriate.
- Not speak publicly to the media on behalf of Council.
- Only maintain membership to one Committee during each term.

The obligations as a Council Committee member are outlined in the Office of Local Government's publication titled Your obligations as a Council Committee member dated March 2013.

3 MEMBERSHIP - ADVISORY COMMITTEES

The current Advisory Committees are detailed in Attachment A. The terms of reference and membership details for each Advisory Committees are detailed in Attachment B.

3.1 Term

The term for Advisory Committees will typically be four years or until the end of the Council term.

Should the Chairperson wish to change the membership at any time, this would then be a matter for Council consideration and resolution.

At the time of the Local Government elections, all Advisory Committee members will cease to hold office.

3.2 Councillor Membership

Councillors will be appointed to Advisory Committees at a Council meeting following the Local Government elections.

Two Councillors (unless otherwise determined) are to be appointed to each of the Advisory Committees for the four-year term of office. This would also include a Chairperson for each Committee (with the exception of the Audit, Risk & Improvement Committee).

All other Councillors are able to attend Advisory Committee meetings in an observation only capacity.

3.3 Community Membership

Community membership will vary according to the Committee and its Terms of Reference. Representatives shall reflect areas such as the objectives, expertise, experience, demographics, special interest groups that exist within or are able to contribute to the Committee and relevant government authorities.

Current staff members are not permitted to be appointed to Committees as a member unless specified in the Terms of Reference. Council staff are able to attend in a supporting capacity.

Council must appoint all Advisory Committee members. Appointment must take place prior to a member being conferred the responsibilities and rights as set out in this document following a robust Expression of Interest process.

Council may release individual members from the Committee at any time by a resolution of Council.

Council may also appoint any new members to a Committee at any time by a resolution of Council following a transparent process.

All nominations for appointment to Committees are formally submitted in writing to Council. Applicants will be reviewed against their expertise and experience and ability to contribute to the Committee in relation to its objectives and terms of reference.

3.4 Dissolution of Committee

The Council may dissolve a Committee at any time by a resolution of Council.

All Committee members are eligible for re-appointment on another Committee.

3.5 Arising Vacancy

Membership of the Committee will become vacant in the following circumstances:

- If the member resigns membership by notice in writing to the Committee
- If the member is absent for more than three consecutive meetings without prior leave of absence or an apology being accepted by the Committee, subject to confirmation by the elected Council of the resignation
- If the member ceases to be a member of the organisation which he/she represents
- Upon the death of the member
- If a member is found to be in breach of the Code of Conduct

Council shall advertise for nominations for vacancies, unless otherwise decided by Council.

3.6 Chairperson

There is only one formal position on Committees – Chairperson. This position will be held by the Councillor delegate (or their alternate) appointed to each Committee.

The Chairperson is the spokesperson for the Committee and therefore needs to be certain that the Committee is running smoothly and achieving its aims and objectives.

3.6.1 Responsibilities of the Chairperson

The Chairperson generally has the following specific duties, which make up the majority of their responsibility:

- (i) Before a meeting:
 - To consult with the relevant Director or Manager for the preparation of an agenda setting out the terms of business to be considered
 - Ensures the meeting is properly convened in accordance with the Code of Meeting Practice, such as proper notice of meeting is given and that a quorum is present.
- (ii) During the meeting:
 - Chairs all meetings, opens meeting, welcomes and introduces members and guests keeps individuals and the meeting focused on the topics being discussed and encourages all members to participate, ensure adequate opportunity is given to members who wish to speak
 - Ensures correct meeting procedures are followed and control of the meeting is maintained, keeping track of time makes sure members are aware of recommendations being made and that the minute taker has recorded recommendations of the meeting.
 - Acts impartially and uses discretionary powers in the best interests of members and in accordance with the meeting practices

- Ensures all statutory regulations and organisation's rules (such as policies) are observed
 - Closes meetings after business at hand without digression.
- (iii) Other responsibilities:
- Be aware of certain issues and procedures and the importance of establish and maintaining a working relationship with the Council
 - Endorse the meeting minutes prior to them being reported to Council
 - Advise and report to Council on the ongoing suitability of current and potential members
 - Speak on behalf of the Committee where appropriate

4 MEETING PROCEDURES FOR ADVISORY COMMITTEES

The Office of Local Government takes the view that Council Committees have members who are not Councillors (that is Council staff and/or community representatives), the Committee's meeting procedures are to be determined by the Council. It may, but does not have to, follow the procedures outlined in the Code of Meeting Practice. Therefore, meeting procedures for Advisory Committees are not officially bound by the Regulation.

However, as the Code of Meeting Practice contains many essential elements to what is considered good meeting practices, this guide to Committee meeting procedures therefore has used the Regulation as a basis for its development. Elements of the Regulation that have been included in this guide for the purpose of facilitating Committee meetings are:

- Due notice of meetings to Committee members
- Entitlement to attend meetings
- Voting
- Minutes
- Quorum
- Audio recording of meetings

Although not specifically bound by the Regulation in relation to meeting procedures, the Chair may find it useful to use the Regulation as a basis.

4.1 Notice of Meetings

Notice of Advisory Committee meetings will be provided to members electronically, along with all Councillors, at least three days prior to the meeting. The notice will specify the time, place and date of the meeting and the business proposed to be transacted. Notice of less than three days may be given of a meeting in an emergency.

4.2 Attendance

Members of Advisory Committee must be either in attendance at the meeting to be eligible of vote or alternatively may participate in the meeting (including voting) via an online meeting platform.

4.3 Non-Members Entitled to Attend Committee Meetings

Councillors who are not members of the Advisory Committee are entitled to attend a Committee meeting. However, such Councillors are observers only and are not entitled to add items to the meeting agenda, move or second a motion or vote at the meeting.

4.4 Quorum/Starting Time for Meetings

Meetings are to commence at the time designated for the meeting. The quorum for an Advisory Committee will be half plus one unless otherwise resolved by Council. The quorum will comprise of members present at the meeting venue and those via an online meeting platform. If a quorum is not present within 10 minutes of the designated commencement time, then the meeting must be adjourned.

Members who select to participate in the meeting remotely via an online meeting platform will be included in the quorum.

4.5 Agenda

The agenda is an organised list of the business, in order, that will be transacted at the meeting. A copy of the agenda will be distributed to all the Committee members at least three days before the commencement of the meeting.

Each item of business to be discussed at the meeting needs to be placed on the agenda. Committee members may request the Chairperson or the assigned staff member for a matter to be included in the agenda prior to its distribution.

Agenda items must relate to the Committee's Terms of Reference.

The Agenda Template is included in Attachment C.

4.6 Annual Report

At the end of each financial year the Advisory Committee is to prepare an Annual Report. The format for the Annual Report is included in Attachment E.

4.7 Conduct of Business

Advisory Committees are to be conducted more informal than Council Meetings and will not strictly follow the meeting procedures in the Local Government (General) Regulation 2005. The Regulation will be used merely as a guide.

Each item of business is discussed in the order in which it appears on the agenda. Adequate time is to be allowed for discussion on important issues.

All conflicts of interests must be disclosed as soon as members become reasonably aware of such.

For some matters, it will be necessary to attach other relevant information to the agenda (as an attachment) to inform and direct discussion. Such information is to be circulated with the agenda to all members and Councillors.

While voting can be used as a mechanism for members to express their agreement or disagreement, voting is only needed in circumstances in which consensus is not clear. The meeting minutes will record the mover and seconder for each decision / recommendation of the Committee.

A member who is present but who abstains from voting on a motion is counted as having voted against the motion. Members who are not present may not vote by proxy or any other means.

4.8 Minutes of Meetings

Minutes of the Committee meeting will only record the procedural decisions (e.g. adoption of minutes) and recommendations of the Committee to Council. The minutes are not a record of the debate / discussion at the meeting.

Endorsed committee minutes will be presented to the next available Council meeting for noting or consideration of any recommendations.

It will be the responsibility of Council staff attending the meeting to record the minutes of the meeting.

The minutes will be distributed to Committee members within five working days of the meeting.

The Minute Template is included in Attachment D.

4.9 Chief Executive Officer and Staff Attendance at Meetings

The Chief Executive Officer is entitled to attend Advisory Committee meetings.

The Chief Executive Officer shall ensure that appropriate staff attend the meetings.

The role of staff attending will be to offer advice and to answer questions within their individual fields of expertise and experience. Council staff are not permitted to vote.

4.10 Working Groups

The Advisory Committee may appoint Working Groups to report to the Committee. The Working Group must include a member of the Advisory Committee, who will act as the Chair, however persons from outside the Committee may be invited to participate.

These Working Groups have no formal standing and must report any suggestions back to the Committee for its determination and/or ratification.

The Working Groups should take meeting notes of their discussions (rather than formal minutes) which can be the basis of a report to the Advisory Committee.

4.11 Absence from Committee Meetings

All Advisory Committee members are required to advise the Chair when they are unable to attend Committee meetings. The absence of Committee members from the meeting is to be recorded in the minutes. A member (other than the Mayor) ceases to be a member of a Committee if the member:

- Has been absent from three consecutive meetings of the Committee without having given reasons acceptable to the Committee for the member's absences, or
- Has been absent from at least half of the meetings of the Committee held during the immediately preceding year without having given to the Committee acceptable reasons for the member's absences.

4.12 Recording of Committee Meetings Prohibited without Permission

A person may use a recording device to record the proceedings of a meeting of a Committee only with the authority of the Committee.

A person may be expelled from a Committee meeting for using or having used a device to record the meeting in contravention of this clause.

Meetings will not be recorded for viewing at a later time.

5. MEETING PROCEDURES FOR FOCUS GROUPS

Focus Groups provide a forum for issues around a Council facility (e.g. Murrumbateman Recreation Grounds Focus Group) or subject (e.g. Crago Mill Precinct Project Focus group).

Membership of Focus Groups for facilities will be the existing or prospective user groups.

Community membership of a Focus Group on a subject will be recruited similar to the process of recruiting members for Advisory Committees.

Focus Groups are not decision-making forums.

Terms of Reference for Focus Groups are included in Attachment B.

Meeting notes of proceedings at a Focus Group meeting will be taken rather than formal minutes.

6. MISCELLANEOUS ISSUES

6.1 Insurance Issues

6.1.1 Public Liability

Committee members are considered Volunteers of Council and are covered by the public liability policy of Council. There is no provision of Workers Compensation Insurance to members.

6.1.2 Personal Accident

Committee members are covered by Council's Personal Accident insurance when injured whilst undertaking actions authorised by Council relating to their role in the Committee.

6.1.3 Motor Vehicle

In the event that a Committee member utilises a Council vehicle, Council's Motor Vehicle insurance will provide cover.

6.2 Legal Issues

Committees do not have delegated decision-making powers other than procedural matters for the Committee (e.g. adoption of minutes).

The Committee will make recommendations to Council in accordance with their Terms of Reference and it is up to Council to determine whether or not to accept the recommendations of the Committee.

Committees sometimes believe they are responsible in their own right and that their actions are independent of Council. This is not correct. Council has resolved to constitute the Advisory Committee and Council can dissolve the Committee at any time, if deemed necessary.

6.3 Conflict of Interest

All Committee members are required to declare conflict of interests and then manage that conflict accordingly.

A conflict of interest exists where a reasonable and informed person could perceive that you could be influenced by a private interest when carrying out a public duty. Advisory Committee members must avoid, or appropriately manage, any conflict of interest. The onus is on the Committee member taking the most appropriate action to identify and manage the conflict of interest to ensure proper probity and good governance.

There are two types of interests – pecuniary and non-pecuniary.

A Pecuniary interest is defined as an interest that a Committee member has in a matter, as a member, or employee, of a company or other body, because of a reasonable likelihood or expectation of appreciable financial gain or loss to the person, or another person with whom the person is associated. Such other persons may include the spouse or de-facto partner or relative of the Committee member.

The proper procedure to be followed for the disclosure of pecuniary interests is for the Committee member to disclose to the meeting any agenda item(s) that the member has a pecuniary interest in as well as the nature of the interest. The Committee member must leave the meeting before discussion, debate and voting on that matter. The Chairperson must ensure that the minutes of the Committee meeting will record the disclosure of the interest and how it was managed.

Non-pecuniary interests are private or personal interests that do not amount to a pecuniary interest. These commonly arise from family, personal relationships, involvement in sporting, social or other cultural groups and associations. Non-pecuniary interests are managed according to their significance. The interest is classified as either significant or non-significant and there are different ways to manage each category.

The proper procedure to be followed for the disclosure of non-pecuniary interests is for the Committee members to disclose to the meeting any agenda item(s) that a member has an interest in as well as the nature of that interest.

In the event of a pecuniary interest or significant, non-pecuniary interest, Councillors must leave the meeting before discussion, debate and voting on the matter. In the event of a non-significant, non-pecuniary interest the Councillors must provide an explanation of why the conflict of interest does not prevent them leaving the meeting or participating in the discussion.

For non-Councillor members are often recruited because of their interests and expertise in the focus area of the committee/group. This is likely to lead to a potential or actual conflict of interest arising from time to time. However, as the Committees are advisory only and not making decisions on behalf of Council, members may participate in the discussion and decision making despite the conflict. In considering any recommendations from an Advisory Committee, Council will take into account the nature of the conflicts declared.

The Chairperson must ensure that the minutes of the Committee meeting record the disclosure of all interests and how these were managed.

Advisory Committee members should familiarise themselves with the Office of Local Government's publication Your obligations as a Council Committee member, Council's adopted Code of Conduct and Code of Meeting Practice for further information relating to the proper identification, disclosure and subsequent management of conflicts of interest.

6.4 Induction

All representatives will be required to participate in an induction process within 12 months of appointment to the Committee. The Chairperson of the Committee will coordinate with the CEO in relation to the induction process.

6.5 Terms of Reference for Advisory Committees including Sustainability principles

All Advisory Committees are to embed sustainability principles into their consideration of all matters and this has been reflected in the individual Terms of Reference.

Sustainability considers social, environmental, and economic connections, civic leadership, environmental health, and economic prosperity to be maintained in the interests of meeting current and future generation's needs equitably.

Consistent with NSW legislation, Council's consideration of sustainability is also guided by:

'The precautionary Principle' – that if there are threats of serious or irreversible environmental damage, lack of full scientific certainty should not be used as a reason for postponing measures to prevent environmental degradation. In the application of the precautionary principle, decisions should be guided by measures such as avoiding irreversible damage to the environment, improved valuation and pricing to reflect polluter pays principles, prices reflect full lifecycle of costs including disposal, intergenerational inequity, and conservation of biological diversity.

Committees have been grouped into the following categories:

- Committees of Council (statutory)
 - Internally focused
- Advisory Committees
 - Provide advice to Council
 - Undertake projects as directed by Council or as endorsed by Council
 - Have an external focus
 - Embed and consider Sustainability principles (as above) in all considerations of the Committee
- Focus Groups
 - Forums to provide feedback to Council and staff on priorities within their Terms of Reference
- Project Working Parties/Steering Committees
 - Established to oversee a Council project
 - Operates only for the duration of the project
 - Provides guidance to the project at key milestones in accordance with the project brief to staff and/or consultants
- External Committees
 - External to Council
 - Established under separate legislation or guidelines
 - Council has no input into Terms of Reference

A list of the current Committees under these categories are provided in the following table:
